INTRODUCTION

For your benefit Youth Work Ireland has arranged an insurance facility for affiliated members with BHP Insurances Ltd. who are leading insurance brokers to the community, voluntary and charitable sector, allowing you to benefit from the “bulk buying power” of coming together with all other affiliated groups. This has resulted in substantial premium savings and covers which are specifically tailored to meet your needs.

To enable young people to maximize their involvement in a Youth Club it's important that there's a variety of activities available to cater for the needs and wants and careful attention to planning and administration on the part of the Youth Leaders is important, particularly in terms of their welfare and safety during activities. In this booklet you will details of the Youth Work Ireland's Insurance Scheme which includes details of the covers which apply to your club, the activities which are catered for, and indeed those which are not automatically catered for. In addition you will find Health & Safety Information which may be of use to you.

This facility only provides liability covers and does not cater for property or equipment and should you require cover for property please contact BHP Insurances Ltd. on 1890 666 111. For all queries which relate to the insurance scheme please contact your Local Youth Services who will be able to assist you.

The purpose of the Insurance Scheme is to indemnify the Youth Club Leaders and Members in respect of their legal liability for accidents to persons or damage to their property and the policy caters for legal liability for accidents or injuries which Leaders or Members suffer as well as members of the general public.

HOW TO AVAIL OF THE INSURANCE FACILITY

Youth Clubs wishing to join the Youth Work Ireland Insurance Scheme should:

- Meet the criteria for Youth Club practices set out by the Local Youth Service
- Complete documentation (Affiliation Form) and pay the appropriate premium
- Submit documentation and premium to the Local Youth Service, which in turn will forward these to Youth Work Ireland to be processed.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Insurance cover for a Youth Club is NOT IN FORCE until the necessary documentation and payments are received by Youth Work Ireland.
- A Youth Club may register with Youth Work Ireland through the local Youth Service. This provides access to a number of club services from YWI National Office but DOES NOT IMPLY ANY COVER UNDER THE YWI INSURANCE SCHEME.
- Youth Work Ireland does not offer a 'Top Up' facility to Youth Clubs insured through Community Association or Parish Council Policies. A review of the levels of cover provided for Youth Clubs under these arrangements highlighted a number of inadequacies. Youth Clubs in this category will now be required to take full membership of Youth Work Ireland Insurance Scheme, thus ensuring that they have the appropriate lever of cover for the range of activities in which they are engaged.

TRIPS TO COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY CENTRES

In respect of visits to Ice rinks, roller rinks, holiday camps (i.e. Butlins), horse riding centres, adventure centres etc. many of the activities offered by these centres are not covered by Youth Work Ireland public liability policy.

The insurance operates on the basis that the organisation of the trip to the centres is covered (i.e. travelling as a club group with appropriate supervision). While participating in the activities provided by the commercial activity centre any incident which may give rise to a claim must be made against the proprietor's insurance providing negligence can be established.

It should be remembered that a situation could arise where injury sustained is not attributable to lack of care on the part of the proprietor. Let us consider a scenario where "horseplay" between club members results in an accident. In such a case questions regarding supervision and conduct of the club members would arise. Depending on the individual circumstances these may be considered under the terms and conditions of the YWI public liability policy. Before organising these trips youth clubs are advised to observe the following checklist:

- Confirm that the centre has public liability cover for the activities it offers
- Inform club members that all or some of the activities in which they will participate are not covered by the YWI insurance scheme
- Once a decision has been taken to organise such a trip the Local Youth Service should be provided with details
- The Local Youth Service will in turn notify the YWI

Please note: Some local youth services have adopted a policy which prevents youth clubs from organising these types of activities

WHAT IS NOT COVERED BY THE YWI INSURANCE SCHEME?

Property Owners Liability of Youth Clubs is not covered. Should a Youth Club own their premises then they must have separate insurance to cover their Public Liability as Property Owners.

Equipment or personal belongings of the Youth Club, Youth Club Leaders or its members is not covered. Should local Youth Clubs wish to insure these items, they should make enquiries through BHP Insurances Ltd. on Lo-call 1890 666 111

Travel to and from the Youth Club activities is not covered:-

- Should a Youth Club Leader / Parent use their own vehicle to take members to and from club activities, they do so at their own risk which should be covered under their own motor insurance policy.
- Should Youth Clubs use mini buses, coaches or public transport it is important to ensure that the coach operator / owner / hire company has the appropriate motor insurance.
- Club members or Leaders should NEVER be transported in open backed trucks, vans or Lorries that do not have fixed seats.
- In all cases the onus is on the Youth Club to establish that all those providing transport have their own adequate insurance cover.

As a member of the YWI Liability Insurance Scheme a ‘Master Policy’ is issued to the YWI and your group is included on the list of members. All the points in this booklet regarding insurance cover are subject to the terms exclusions and conditions of the master policy. The master policy may be inspected if so desired, on request to the YWI In practice however, you do not need a copy of the master policy and its inspection should not be required.

INSURANCE QUERIES

Youth Work Ireland is happy to deal with queries youth clubs may have in relation to the Liability Policy. In most cases these are responded to within 24 hours. In order to ensure the continuance of an efficient service, youth clubs are requested to observe the following procedure.

Whenever possible queries should be presented in writing. If you wish to apply for cover for a particular event, a set of forms have been designed for this purpose.

To ensure that all enquiries are co-ordinated queries, applications etc. should be referred to the local Youth Service office rather than directly to BHP Insurances. The Local Youth Service will forward your query/ application to YWI National office.

Responses to routine queries are made within 24 hours. Arranging additional insurance cover for activities can take longer and youth clubs are reminded to observe instructions on application forms regarding the period of notice required by YWI national office. Failure to work within this timescale could lead to a situation where insurance cover is declined by our insurers.

LIABILITY INSURANCE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Where does the policy relate to?

The policy relates to accidents or incidents which may occur in or around any premises the Youth Club use and whilst away from the premises undertaking any activities which are carried out with full knowledge and authority of the Youth Club. The policy relates to incidents which occur within Ireland, Northern Ireland, Great Britain, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands. If you are undertaking activities outside of these areas please contact your Regional Youth Services office.

2. How can the Youth Club be held legally Liability for accidents?

Youth Clubs can be held Legally Liable for accidents where:-

- There are defects in premises, furniture, equipment or other property
- There is a failure to take reasonable care to avoid accidents to visitors, Leaders, Members or other members of the public
- There is a failure to ensure that goods supplied (including food and drink) are fit for the purpose for which they are intended
- There is a failure to exercise adequate supervision of young persons
- There are deliberate acts of Abuse against young people in the care of the Youth Club

3. How Does the Policy Protect the Youth Club?

The policy protects the Youth Club in respect of their legal liability resulting from such accidents to an amount of €6,500,000. This is known as the Limit of Indemnity and is defined in the policy as “any one accident or a series of accidents arising from a single event”. This limit includes all legal costs and expenses incurred in the defence of any claim as well as damages and costs awarded against the Youth Club.

4. Does the Policy Cover any Accident of Incident?

Some Accidents are inevitable and in order to have a successful claim the injured party must be able to prove that injury resulted from the negligent action (or inaction) of another. The policy covers only the Liability at Law which means that for any person to succeed in an action they must be able to prove, in a court of Law if necessary that the organisation, its employee or voluntary worker was negligent and that this negligence was the cause of and/or contributed to the injury or damage. Just as our legal system is “confrontational” in nature so, of necessity, is liability insurance.

5. Does the Policy Only Cover Claims Following Negligence?

No. The policy also covers Liability at Law which may arise as a result of either Nuisance or Trespass but most claims made are in respect of Negligence. In addition the policy does not exclude deliberate acts of Abuse against members of the Youth Clubs.

6. What is Negligence?

Negligence has been defined in law as “the omission to do something which a reasonable person would do or doing something which a prudent and reasonable person would not do”. A “reasonable person” has been defined as the ordinary person in the street.

7. What is meant by a Duty of Care?

Every person or group in society has a duty to take reasonable care:

- That the premises, grounds, furniture and equipment are safe and free from any defect likely to cause injury or damage.
- In the exercise of duties and undertakings.

Failure to fulfil the required duty of care resulting in injury or damage may invoke a liability to provide compensation.

8. Does the policy cover deliberate acts?

As a general No as for the policy to operate there has to be Accidental bodily injury illness or disease or loss or Damage to property, however one exception to this is acts of Abuse towards the Club Members.

9. What about legal fees and other costs?

The policy includes all legal costs and expenses incurred in the defence of any claim as well as damages and costs awarded against the Youth Club but subject to the limit of Indemnity. A person taking a legal action against the Youth Club which fails will be responsible for their own costs.

10. Who decides the question of liability?

The Court, however cases may be settled out of court on the recommendation of our legal advisors as to awards and costs.

11. What does member to member liability mean?

At law one member of a Youth Club cannot succeed in a legal action against the Youth Club or another member of the Youth Club on the basis that he / she is in effect suing him / herself. To overcome this legal impediment the inclusion of member to member liability cover in the policy provides an indemnity to each individual giving them leave to pursue or defend any action in their own right.

12. Does the policy cover advice given or professional services rendered?

No. The policy specifically excludes liability arising from advice given or services rendered.

13. Do we need insurance if we are using premises belonging to someone else?

Yes. The person who owns the premises should have insurance for liability which he / she can incur as a result of their negligence (example defects in the premises), however, the group will still need insurance for the undertaking of activities carried on in those premises.

For example: injuries to members of your Youth Club not arising from defects in the premises e.g. if you spilt water on the floor and did not attend to it and a member (or Third party) slipped and injured themselves they may have a valid claim against the Youth Club as organiser of the activity.

14. Do Users of our premises require their own liability insurance?

Yes. It is good and prudent to practice to insist that all outside groups produce satisfactory evidence of insurance, with indemnity to principal and / or yourselves, before they are permitted to use your premises. If a member of the outside group is injured on your premises solely due to negligence of the organiser of the activity (and not yourself) they will most likely sue both the organiser and you (as the property owner). If the outside group does not have insurance this could result in you having to compensate the injured party and /or incur unnecessary legal costs in defending yourself.

15. If a club member leaves during a supervised Youth Club trip with or without the permission of a supervisor / leader and has an accident, is the insurance cover still valid?

Yes. If permission has been given the supervisor / leader should satisfy themselves that the Youth is competent and responsible to carry out the particular task or errand.

16. If the youth club employs an individual to provide a service (e.g. Painting, decorating, cleaning etc.) does the policy cover its legal liability for accidents resulting in this situation?

No. However, should members of the Youth Club undertake painting, decorating and cleaning, this event, as an organised activity of the Youth Club, would not be excluded. If the Youth Club is to employ people for such tasks they should ensure they are contracting a reputable company who have their own insurance with an indemnity to principal / the Youth Club.

17. Does the policy provide cover for a Youth Club Leader or Member if they sustain an injury due to a defect in the premises being used for a club activity?

If the youth club or Youth Work Ireland are found to be legally liable for the accident then the policy will operate. If the fault of the accident rests with the landlord then the injured party will have a case against the landlord. Occasions may arise where the liability for the accident could be shared between the landlord and the Youth Club. Ultimately, the answer to this question lies in court on the presentation of facts.

18. If there is no leader present at an activity but approval had been given for the activity to take place, with a person deemed suitable by the leader in charge, is insurance cover still valid?

Yes. However, there is always an obligation on the Youth Club to take all reasonable care and to act responsibly.

19. Who is responsible for ensuring that the premises being used for Youth Club activities conforms to the fire and safety regulations and what implications does this have for insurance cover?

Unfortunately there is no uniform answer to this question. However, should the matter be of concern the Youth Club should contact their local Fire Officer and discuss the matter with him / her. It is suggested that these enquiries should be directed through the landlord should there be one.

20. When a Youth Club organises a camping trip are there particular conditions which apply to insurance cover, for example, in relation to cooking?

No. However, in relation to cooking, leaders or older club members should take responsibility for this.

21. When accidents occur during Youth Club activities are club committees or leaders deemed automatically responsible?

No. At no stage should a committee of youth leader accept responsibility for accidental bodily injury or damage to property. The club committee and its leaders should be seen to be caring and concerned about the particular event and report the matter immediately to Youth Work Ireland. If a claim is made, whether the Youth Club is responsible or not, BHP will deal with the proceedings.

22. Does a minimum age apply for insurance purposes in respect of Youth Club members?

No.

23. If a Youth Club decides to hold a public disco in a hotel, do special insurance arrangements need to be made?

Yes. Details of disco must be advised to YWI in advance of the event. In addition, the hotel may ask you for evidence of your insurance cover.

24. Is it possible for a Youth Club to arrange insurance for a summer project being organised by a local community organisation, community development group, residents association or others?

No. Should a residents association arrange an event it is the responsibility of that association to purchase the appropriate insurance cover. Should the Youth Club participate in an event organised by the residents association it may be necessary for the Youth Club to produce evidence of insurance to the residents association, however this is unlikely. A Youth Club can only organise insurance on its own behalf. If a group advise they cannot arrange cover on their own behalf they can contact BHP Insurances on Lo-call 1890 666 111 to arrange their own cover.

25. While Youth Club members are waiting outside the club premises before it is open for a club meeting and an accident occurs which results in a member being injured, does the policy cover this?

Yes. Once again we would stress that the Public Liability insurance will deal with accidental damage or accidental injury where the Youth Club is legally liable. If it is not legally liable for an accident there is no need for the Youth Club or its insurers to compensate the injured party.

SAFETY

Most accidents don't happen – they are caused. Make sure that the premises you occupy is safe, clean, tidy and that all equipment when not in use is properly stored.

PREMISES

- All exits should be clearly marked and kept free from obstruction.
- Suitable fire extinguishers should be deployed about the premises. These should be maintained annually. Make sure everybody knows how to use them.
- Lighting must be adequate at all times, even when discos are taking place.
- Where indoor sports such as indoor soccer, badminton, volleyball etc. takes place, make sure protruding radiators, all sharp edges and items of furniture are guarded.
- All electrical safety literature should be studied. Plugs wired correctly, sockets not overloaded and dry powder fire extinguishers should be kept handy.

EQUIPMENT

- Do not allow equipment to be lying about the premises where it could be damaged or cause an injury.
- Electrical and gas appliances should be treated with caution and regularly serviced.

MEMBERS AND VISITORS

- Keep an accurate attendance register, as this is the only proof of attendance in the event of an accident. A separate register must be kept for visitors and prospective members.

PLANNING AN EVENT

Under Legislation all entertainment events are classed as work activities and therefore are subject to the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act 2005 and the various Regulations under it. An organiser has a duty to ensure that any premises (including grounds or other open spaces) have a means of access and egress and any plant, equipment and substances are safe and without risk to the health of Leaders, Members or members of the public.

In addition the Health and Safety Authority regard persons who make use of Volunteers as Employers and Volunteers as Employees and therefore volunteers require the same level of training information and protection as employees.

During the planning of any event it is important to give consideration to:-

- Contractual Agreements

Carefully check all Contractual Agreements as some can place onerous responsibility on you which perhaps should be catered for by the supplier

- Communications

There should be clear lines of communication between those organising and those with areas of responsibility. If an event is spread over a large site or more than one floor of a building it is recommended to have a central control point with a specified person to take overall control with responsibility to summon emergency services if necessary, with location of nearest public telephone known or charged mobile phone accessible. In addition consideration should be given to how to communicate to the public if the need arises.

- Planning the venue

The following should be considered:-

- Are buildings large enough with sufficient entrances / exits for numbers?
- Are exits clearly marked?
- Are there sufficient fire extinguishers?
- Do exhibitors or stall-holders need to bring in equipment?
- Are doorways wide enough for such equipment? Are there awkward steps or corridors?
- Are there sufficient numbers of people to help unload?

- Will the vehicles used need to be brought close to the entrance and what are the traffic implications?

- Crowd Control / Supervision

Supervision is key to any youth related activities and it is imperative that there is adequate supervision to ensure that the welfare and safety of the youths can be maintained at all times. In order to ensure crowd control safety the following should be considered:-

- Adequate means of escape including ensuring fire exits are unlocked
- Cordoning off Hazardous Areas
- Provision of Adequately trained marshals
- Emergency Evacuation Procedures

- First Aid

A Risk Assessment must be undertaken to assess the First Aid provisions required, based on the numbers attending and the nature of the activities involved. Provision may range from a simple First Aid Box to a number of First Aiders or attendance by St. John's Ambulance Brigade or The Order of Malta. All marshals and Leaders must be fully aware of the extent and location of First Aid Facilities. An emergency plan must also be in place in the event of someone having to be taken to hospital or needing emergency treatment

- Food and Drink

Provision of food and drink at an event can lead to food poisoning which is on the increase and the requirements of the Food Safety Authority of Ireland Act 1998 and the European Communities (Hygiene of Foodstuffs) Regulations 2006 must be considered. The FSAI provides guidance notes for training on these requirements.

- Cash Handling

Consideration needs to be given before the event to both the safe keeping of any cash itself and also the safety and welfare of those collecting, handling and banking money. It is important to have relevant safe / cash box depending on the level of cash involved with a float and takings should be removed to a safe place on a regular basis during the course of the event. Selling tickets in advance will reduce the cash on the day of the event itself. Remember the safety of people is always more important than the protection of money.

VISITS AND OUTINGS

Risk Assessment

Undertaking Risk Assessment should be starting point to identify potential risks and put appropriate control measures in place. Depending on the outing this should either be as desk exercise or a “test run”. Findings of Risk Assessment need to be recorded and procedures you out in place will need to be monitored and adjusted during the trip if deemed necessary.

Areas to consider when undertaking the risk assessment

Staff – Volunteer / Youth Ratios

Upmost importance to ensure sufficient numbers of staff and / or volunteers to cope with the numbers of youths and a general rule is that higher numbers of adults are required for trips away from your general premises. Youth’s will be unfamiliar with their surroundings and additional adults will be required to deal with any emergency while remaining adults will look after the youths.

The Journey

Consideration must be given to the mode of transport. Checks need to be made that, where appropriate, vehicles are fitted with seatbelts and that access is possible for wheelchair users. The length of the journey and the need for refreshment and toilet breaks needs to be taken into account.

Medication and First Aid Facilities

Length and nature of trip must be considered when deciding the level of first aid skill and equipment required. As a rule the party should be self sufficient without having to rely on obtaining medical supplies on route. A thorough investigation must be undertaken of the proposed destination, particularly bearing in mind youth’s with disabilities. General hazards need to be considered bearing in mind the particular group.

Contingency Planning

A risk assessment should be considered for things not going to plan, such as vehicle breakdown. It is essential that leaders have adequate means of communication such as mobile phones and that there are people who can be contacted to sort emergency arrangements.

CLAIMS PROCEDURES

Keep a written record of every incident noting witnesses regardless of whether you feel the club is liable as the absence of liability will not necessarily preclude the possibility of a claim.

What are the basic rules when an accident occurs?

- Immediately notify all incidents which may give rise to a claim to Local Youth Service.
- For fatality or serious accident immediate verbal report must be made to Youth Work Ireland. This enables BHP Insurances / Ecclesiastical to send out their own investigators immediately.
- Record the exact situation and condition of the locus of an accident as part of the written report. Inspect as quickly as possible after the incident and relevant details recorded in writing. A photograph of the accident may later prove invaluable.
- Always consider action required to prevent recurrence of the incident.
- All relevant information should be written down immediately whilst facts are still fresh in the memory even when it appears that the injured person or family does not wish to pursue a claim. Any delay in recording the facts may cause a loss of evidence.

What information do we give about accidents?

Circumstances:

- Describe events leading up to the accident including what the injured person was doing
- What happened and why did it happen

- Who was supervising / Was the correct level of supervision in operation
- If the injury occurred during an activity was the injury foreseeable e.g. prolonged rough play

Witnesses:

- Who saw the accident
- Obtain detailed signed statements where the accident is serious e.g. involving an eye injury or fracture
- What was said afterwards

IMPORTANT:

BEFORE TAKING A STATEMENT FROM A CHILD WHO MAY BE INVOLVED IN THE ACCIDENT YOU SHOULD GET PERMISSION FROM THE PARENTS OR GUARDIANS.

Place of Accident:

- Inspect it immediately - Was equipment involved? Was it in good order?
- Retain any evidence for inspection
- Photograph or sketch
- Note measurements, weights, heights, condition of ground, weather conditions etc.

Injured person:

- Obtain the name, address and age of the injured person
- What is the nature of the injury
- What treatment did he / she receive and from who?

Youth leaders and Youth Club Committees should not make an admission of liability or responsibility to the injured person, parents or other. This does not mean that expressions and acts of charity and compassion should be omitted.

The leader in charge of the activity should inform the Local Youth Service of the accident within 48 hours. In turn, the Local Youth Service should forward the details immediately to YWI National office. On receipt of this information YWI will issue accident report forms for completion.

If, when the claim is being processed, the Youth Club receives correspondence from the injured party's solicitors this should be forwarded immediately through the Local Youth Service to Youth Work Ireland. Under no circumstances should the Youth Club or individual leaders respond to such a correspondence.

PLEASE NOTE:

IT IS OF THE UPMOST IMPORTANCE THAT ACCIDENTS ARE REPORTED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. FAILURE TO DO THIS MAY INVALIDATE THE INSURANCE COVER.
