Description of Project

Investment area 3.3 Youth mental health and wellbeing

This will support additional, non-formal provision activity involving cross community and cross-border multi-partner collaborative approaches, which will lead to improved understanding of youth mental health and wellbeing issues and the sharing of best practice across the Programme Area to improve service delivery.

Job Responsibilities

YWI targets and deliverables

The Development Officer will join a dynamic and established team of 6 full-time Youth Workers and one full-time Administrator, playing a key role in delivering ambitious programme targets through the implementation of Joint Training Schemes across Louth, Cavan, Monaghan, Sligo, Leitrim and Donegal.

MIND MATTERS

Mind Matters contributes to peace and reconciliation through the development of emotional resilience in young people aged 11–25, with a focus on thought processes, self-awareness, and positive coping strategies.

CHOICE

CHOICE contributes to peace and reconciliation through the development of emotional resilience in young people aged 14–25, with a focus on relationships, consent, sexual health, and informed decision-making.

STAND UPP

Stand UPP contributes to peace and reconciliation through the development of emotional resilience in young people aged 14–25, with a focus on gender-based violence prevention, power dynamics, relationships, and positive behaviours.

RISE UP

Rise Up contributes to peace and reconciliation through the development of emotional resilience in young people aged 14–24, with a focus on leadership, community engagement, and social action.

KEY WORKER TRAINING IN MIND MATTERS, CHOICE, STAND UPP AND RISE UP

The key worker training will equip participants to deliver four Youth Work Ireland programmes in order to contribute to peace and reconciliation through the development of enhanced emotional resilience, informed decision-making, and positive outcomes for young people.
